Jordan Family

This surname, found in both England and France, was said to be given to descendants of Jordan or Jourdain (flowing down), personal name sometime given to one who was baptized with holy water from the River Jordan.

The ancestors of this Jordan family came from England according to Mr. Harrison Early Jordan [born near Clinton, Van Buren Co., AR, May 1, 1873]. The first Jordan about whom we have definite information is James.

First Generation

1. James Jordan (Jourdin);¹ farmer and livestock trader; born GA, Feb. 25, 1797; died Coxes District, Cobb Co., GA, Sept. 18, 1880; shown in the Cobb Co., GA, 1840, 1850, 1860 and 1880 census; married first, in Georgia, Nancy F. Dobbs² [born Georgia, 1797/98; living Cobb Co., GA, 1840, 1850, and deceased by 1860]; the Dobbs is given in the death certificate of Samuel H. Jordan, son of James Jordan, and Nancy F., shown in the 1850 census. Children as given by the children of Samuel H. Jordan [born April 16, 1821 or May 16, 1819); died April 21, 1914]:
 - + 2. Samuel H., born April 16, 1821; or May 16, 1819; died April 21, 1914.
 - + 3. Elbert P., born Jan. 25, 1825; died July 22, 1864.
 - + 4. William M., born Feb. 6, 1827; died June 6, 1895.

James Jordan married second, Winifred Unknown [maiden name Unknown]; born Georgia Aug. 15, 1798; died Cobb Co., GA, Jan 24, 1879; first shown in the 1860 census in Cobb Co., GA; no children.

James Jordan and wife joined Concord Baptist Church, in Coxes District of Cobb County, Feb 24, 1838. Minutes of Concord Baptist Church, in Coxes District of Cobb County are on microfilm in the Georgia State Archives, on Capitol Ave., near the State Capitol in Atlanta.

Mr. Early Jordan [son of Samuel H. Jordan] said his Grandfather, James Jordan was something of a horse-trader and would literally "trade his shirt" in a deal. Mr. Early Jordan gave William as the only brother of Samuel H. Jordan of which he had any knowledge.

² U.S. Census 1820, Gwinnett County, GA, pages 259 [Morman Dobbs] 260, Thomas A. Dobbs, 263 William Dobbs, and 273, Silas Dobbs.

Cobb Co., GA, was formed in 1832 from Cherokee County which in turn was formed in 1831 from Indian Lands. James Jordan in various Cobb Co., GA, censuses [1850, 1860, 1880] indicated he was born in Georgia; however, he also indicated in 1880 that both his father and mother were born in Georgia. If this is accurate it means all his grandparents were in Georgia by about 1780 at the latest and probably somewhat earlier.

Following is a copy of the Certificate of Disability Discharge for S. H. Jordan:

"Army of the State of Georgia
Certificate of Disability for Discharge

Private S. H. Jordan of Captain F. M. Cowen's Company (E) of the 1st Regiment Georgia State Troops, was enlisted by Capt. F. M. Cowen of the 1st Reg't. Georgia State Troops, at Marietta on the Eighth day of January 1865 to serve until disbanded; he was born in Gwinnett County, in the State of Georgia, is forty five years of age, five feet ten inches high, Fair complexion, Grey eyes, Light hair, and by occupation when enlisted a Farmer. During the last two months said soldier has been unfit for duty Twenty days.

F.M. Cowen
Capt. Commanding Company"

Keeping in mind that James Jordan's son Samuel H. Jordan was born ca. 1820 in Gwinnett County, we find Samuel Jourdan, Charles Jourdan and James Jourdan are shown consecutively on page 262 of the Gwinnett Co., GA, 1820 census. Samuel Jurdan, Jr., of Gwinnett County in Hamilton's Military District drew Lot No. 247 in Section 10 located in Early Co., GA, in the Third or 1820 Land Lottery of Georgia; and James Jordan of Jackson County in Hamiltons BT. drew Lot No. 201 in Section 2 located in Early Co., GA, in The Third or 1820 Land Lottery of Georgia [one could look at deed records in Early County to see when these lands were disposed of and by whom]. Since James Jordan is shown in Gwinnett Co., GA, in the 1820 census, and prior to the formation in 1818 of Gwinnett County was a resident of parent Jackson County, this would make one think that he [assuming he is a brother of Samuel Jourdan and possibly Charles Jourdan], might have been a son of one Samuel Jurdan, Sr.

Probably James Jordan was a son of the Samuel Jordan who in 1807 was a resident of Jackson County, Cochran's District and drew Lot No. 142, District No. 24 for land located in Wilkinson Co., GA. The 1830 census, page 60 shows a "Samuel Jordan" as a resident of Twiggs County which was formed in 1809 from Wilkinson County. However, he was too young to be the father of James Jordan, born Feb. 25, 1797. The only other Samuel Jordan appearing in the 1830 Georgia census [also 1840, page 68] was in Carroll County, page 228, and he also was too young to be the father of James Jordan.

The fact that Samuel Jordan in 1807 did not use "junior" as was used by the Samuel Jordan, Jr., in The Third of 1820 Land Lottery of Georgia, seems to indicate that the Samuel Jordan in 1807 was a "Senior." It is not clear who the "J. Jordan was who was married in Jackson Co., GA, Sept.30, 1811, Polly Brown, nor is it clear who the orphans, residents of Jackson County, were of L. H. Jordan, deceased. These orphans received a draw in the 1806 Lottery for lands in Wilkinson and Baldwin Counties and the details were taken care for them by a man names James Whitehead.

In the Georgia Early Tax Digests are found: "Jurdin, Sml., Hancock County, Crowder District, 1796, 038*" and "Jurdin, Sam 1., Jefferson County, Vinning District, 1799, 035." Land and probate records of Hancock and Jefferson Counties, GA, should be examined for possible children named Samuel, James, and Charles of each of these [two} Samuels.

In Early Records of Georgia, Vol. 1, Wilkes County, by Grace Gillam Davidson, 1932, pages 27 and 264, the Court of Land Commissioners Appointed by Governor Wright to issue the "Ceded Lands"1773-1775 issued to Samuel Jourdan, "himself only", i.e., no family, from North Carolina, and now a resident of Wrightsborough, on January 13, 1775, 100 acres of land on Sought side Ogeechee adjacent Saunders Walker's upper line. In 1789 Samuel Jourdan's property is shown as adjoining property of Nathaniel Coats, Sheriff who transferred 400 acres of land to William Greaves. In same record, Vol. 2, pages 70, 90, and 91, Samuel Jurden is taxed in 1785 on 200 acres in Wilkes County and Samuel Jurden and his wife, Jen or Jeen, Jean, sell to Jesse Hardy 100 acres on both sides of Well's Creed, part of tract bought by said Jorden from Thos. Holloy, Sept. 24, 1789; Sm Hollined, Edward Hardy, test." The Wilkes County Papers, page 294, show that Samuel Jourdon received the warrant for the 100 acres shown above on March 21, 1775. Abstract of 1790 Tax Returns, #46 Samuel Jurdon land in Washington County, Georgia, 200 acres in District D, Captain Ware's District.

Mulberry Fork water course now separates Jackson and Barrow Counties, GA. Barrow County was formed in part from Jackson and Gwinnett Counties, in 1914. Charles Jourdon was taxed on the Mulberry Fork [Burge's District] in 1801 [a Charles Jordon was in Wilkes County as early as 1785]. Radford Jordan was in the 1805 lottery list in Jackson County and was shown in 1807. As previously mentioned, James Jordan was in Gwinnett County [Hamilton's District] in 1819 and is shown in Gwinnett County in the 1820 U.S. Census. In Gone to Georgia it is said on page 293, "Perhaps a link to the family in Gwinnett County, James Jordan and James Hamilton were joint securities for Ann, Widow of John Twitty and their son, William, in the administration of the elder Twitty's estate in Pendelton Dist., S.C., May 9, 1791 [Court Minutes 1790-1793, page 7]."

Gwinnett County with county seat at Lawrenceville was created in 1818 from Cherokee Lands and from a part of Jackson County. The Gwinnett County courthouse burned in 1871 with few records saved. Jackson Co., GA, with county seat at Jefferson was created in 1796 from Franklin County. The Clerk of the Superior Court has marriage, divorce, and probate records from 1800, civil court and land records from 1796. Franklin Co. GA, with county seat at Carnesville was created 1794 from Cherokee Lands. The Georgia Archives has some records of Franklin County prior to 1850.

James Jordan had moved to Cobb County by 1840. James, aged 83, was living in 1880 in Cobb County, GA, Coxes District No. 89, page No. 14; Supervisor's Dist. No. 1; Enumeration Dist. No. 30, dwelling No. 120, family No. 127, in the household of his son William M. Jordan. James Jordan was shown as widowed and disabled from "Dog bite." James and wife Winifred along with his son William M. Jordan and wife Elizabeth A. are buried in the Mt. Harmony Cemetery, Bankhead Highway, 2.7 miles from Mableton and 1.8 miles from junction of Oakdale Road and Bankhead Highway in Cobb Co., GA.

Mrs. Emma Lorena Jordan Owen in 1955 gave Elbert as a brother of Samuel H. Jordan and this certainly seems accurate as William M. Jourdin and wife, Elizabeth, are enumerated in the next dwelling after Elbert P. Jourdin in the 1850 census. The 1840 Cobb County census of James Jordan shows only two sons at home. However, the 1830 census of James Jordan³ in DeKalb County shows three sons and one daughter. The daughter was the oldest child and her name is not known.

Second Generation

2. Samuel H. Jordan [middle name "Houston" according to Barbara Whitham, 2695 Deephill Cir. Dallas, TX 75233, great granddaughter of Tandy Monroe Jordan, Descendant No. 8 in this summary], farmer; born Gwinnett Co., GA. For an obituary for "Uncle Sam" Jordan see Van Buren County Democrat, April 24, 1914, page 3, col. 3.

Samuel H. Jordan lived in Birmingham, AL, for about four years immediately after the Civil War and it is possible that some of his children were born there. In later years, Samuel Jordan lived in Van Buren Co., AR, not far from Clinton near the Red River.

3. Elbert P. Jordan, born Gwinnett Co., GA, Jan. 25, 1825; died July 22, 1864; killed in the battle of Atlanta during the Civil War; lived Coxes District, Cobb Co., GA; married prior to 1850 census, Frances Ann Glore [born Georgia, Oct. 10, 1833; died June 2, 1896; daughter of Abram Glore]. Children as given by Mr. L. Harold Glore; court records mentioned one additional child:

Elbert P. Jordan enlisted in the Confederate Army on Dec. 1, 1862 as a Private in Company E. 1st [Gault's] Regiment Infantry, Georgia State Line. "He died in the Battle of Atlanta and is buried in a mass grave on Peters Street, Atlanta, but a memorial Stone has been placed on the Jordan lot at the Glore Cemetery in Mableton."

For more data on the descendants of Elbert P. Jordan see Glore Family History and Jordan family histories distributed to Jordan descendants several years ago by Mr. L. Harold Glore, attorney and historian. Mr. Glore was admitted to the bar in 1930 at the age of 21. The Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol. 18, No. 2 Summer Issue 1980, pages 101-103 gives burials in the Glore Cemetery, Mableton, Cobb Co., GA 30059. The cemetery is about half way between Clay Road and Floyd Road, on what was the Abram Glore Plantation.

All of the above children appear to have been born after the 1850 census. Georgia State Records, by Jeannette Holland shows "Jordan, Elbert P., decd. John G. Glore, admr., applies for leave to sell, 9/6/1869; Frances Jordan, wid., applies for year's support for herself and 'eight minor children', 11/1/1869, Cobb County, MIC." The 1870 census or the estate settlement should be examined for names of these eight children.

Mr. L. Harold Glore 960 Front Street, S.W., Mableton, GA 30059, has deposited four literary works with South Cobb Library, 5801 Mableton Parkway, Mableton, GA 30059, which give further Jordan family data:

Jordan Family of Virginia, Perquimans County, NC, South Carolina, and Georgia

The authority on the early genealogy of this family is Larry R. Stanley, 130 Oak Shores Drive, McDonough, GA 30253, telephone 770-914-9324 or <ebstanley@mindspring.com>. All of his Jordan genealogy data are available at <<http://www.familytreemaker.com/users/s/t/a/Larry-R-Stanley/GENE9-0001.html>>.

The ancestors of this Jordan family came from England according to Mr. Early Jordan (born near Clinton, Van Buren Co., AR, May 1, 1873; living at Clinton, Van Buren Co., AR, 1959).

From the research of Octavia Jordan Perry, John Russey, and Larry R. Stanley the following genealogy is compiled:

1. Samuel Jordan (son of Thomas and Margaret Jordan); was born in Nansemond Co., VA in 1679; died at the age of 40 between October 1718, when he made out his will, and June 1719, when his will was probated in New Kent Co., VA; according to Quaker records he married in December 1703, Elizabeth Fleming (daughter of Charles and Sussanna Tarleton Fleming of New Kent County. Charles Fleming was the son of Sir Thomas Fleming and grandson of Lord John Fleming, Earl of Wigton, Scotland. Although Samuel and Elizabeth were married according to Quaker rites, they later became Episcopalians. Fleming). Children of Samuel Jordan and Elizabeth Fleming:

- + 2. Samuel; born 1704
- + 3. Charles; born ca. 1706
- 4. A daughter; name not given.
- 5. A daughter; name not given.
- + 6. Matthew; born 1716; died 1769.

In 1735 Charles Jordan was granted 400 acres in Goochland Co., VA near the mountains on Rock House Branch. The property was described, under date of March 15, 1735, as “on the north side of the Fluvanna River and crossing Rock House Branch.” Under the date of September 25, 1746, the property was listed to Matthew Jordan as “adjoining his own land.” It is assumed that Charles sold the land to his younger brother, Matthew, as his own son of that name was at the time only five years old.

Charles Jordan was listed as a member of the vestry of St. James Northam Parish, Goochland Co., VA in 1756.

On July 13, 1765, he made Deeds of Gift to his sons Matthew and James as follows: Charles Fleming willed 500 acres of land in Goochland Co., VA to two of his grandsons, namely Charles Jordan and George Bates as shown in the following:

“There is on record in Goochland a deed dated April 17, 1736, from Tarleton Woodson of Henrico County to Colonel John Fleming conveying 1,290 acres in Goochland (part of what is known as the ‘Lickinghold Survey’) - 500 acres of said land had been given by the will of Charles Fleming to his grandsons Charles Jordan and George Bates. And also a deed in Goochland, dated April 1736, from John Fleming to his nephews Charles Jordan, George Bates, Samuel Jordan, and Matthew Jordan, conveying 500 acres in Goochland which he had bought from Tarleton Woodson.”

Only one daughter of Charles Fleming married a Jordan, Samuel, and one daughter married John Bates. So there can be no doubt to the identity of the two grandsons whom Charles Fleming named in his will.

2. Samuel Jordan; born 1704; married Judith Scott Ware, the widow of Peter Ware.

3. Charles Jordan; born ca. 1706; married ca. 1727, Hellenah Unknown. Children named in will:

- + 7. Charles II; born ca. 1728
- 8. James.
- 9. Matthew.
- 10. Willaim.
- 11. Elizabeth; married a Mr. Soblet.

6. Matthew Jordan; born 1716; died in 1769; married Julia Scott Ware, daughter of Judith Scott Ware who after the death of her husband Peter Ware, married Samuel Jordan, the older brother of Matthew Jordan. They [presumably Matthew and the daughter Judith Scott Ware] had issue of ten children. It is known that at least two of his sons migrated to Georgia, Reuben and Fleming.

- 12. Reuben.
- 13. Fleming.

7. Charles Jordan, II (Jurden), Captain in the Revolutionary War; born ca. 1728; died at the Siege of Augusta, GA, in 1780; in 1749 was a resident of Perquimans Co., NC; married first Mary Unknown and second, Martha Unknown. Children numbered five as shown in the settlement of his estate by his son Dempsey Jordan:

- + 14. Samuel; born Aug. 18, 1749, according to pension application.
- + 15. Dempsey.
- + 16. Charles.
- + 17. James
- + 18. Peninnah “Perainy”; married James Stanley (1785-1890).

The Georgia 1830 census shows a Dempsey A. Jordan and Chas. Jordan both residing in Meriwether County, page 168. Dempsy Jorden is shown in Taliferro [joins Greene and Wilkes Cos.] County, page 357. Saml. Jordan is shown in Twiggs [central Georgia] County, page 60. The identities of these individuals are not certain.

14. Samuel Jordan;⁸ born Perquimans Co., NC, on the East of Maherrin River Aug. 18, 1749; died Walton Co., GA, 1835; was on the Tax List of Wilkes Co., GA, [1785?] with one poll and 200 acres of land; was in Gwinnett Co., GA, 1807, Cochran's District on Mulberry; in the 1820 census of Gwinnett Co., GA, aged 26-45 [sic.]; of Taliaferro Co., GA, in 1829; living Georgia, Nov. 20, 1832 when he applied for a Revolutionary pension; married first, Jen or Jeen Unknown (living Wilkes Co., GA, Sept. 24, 1789); married second, Gwinnett Co., GA, 1821, Margaret Daniel Unknown. Presumed son from first wife due to the fact James is said to have been born in Gwinnett Co., GA, Feb. 25, 1797 [Gwinnett formed 1818 in part from Jackson which was formed 1796] and where Samuel Jordan was shown in records during this time frame and 1820 census; and James named his first son Samuel H. Jordan - names not available of any other children of Samuel (born Aug. 18, 1749):

+ 19. James; born Georgia, Feb. 25, 1797; died Coxes District, Cobb Co., GA, Sept. 18, 1880.

According to his pension application Samuel Jordan lived first at Fort Wells in Wilkes Co, GA, then in Washington County, then in Lincoln County, then in Jackson County, then in Gwinnett County, then in Henry County, then in DeKalb County, and then in Walton County [where he died]. Samuel was a Revolutionary soldier; "fought at the Battle of Kettle Creek, through which Georgia was freed of the Tory domination and a monument has been erected to their memory on the battle ground: Dempsey Jordan; Samuel Jordan", etc.⁹

15. Dempsey Jordan; died prior to Nov, 20, 1832 in the house of his brother Charles Jordan;
